Please indicate in no more than 100 words why you would like to join the Parish Council	Following a career in Finance and Programmes Management serving government organisations, I retired in 2015 and became chairman of Age UK Berkshire's charity organisation. To improve access to our parents, my wife and I then moved to Shropshire; following the death of our parents, we moved to Somerset to be closer to our family. The friendliness and multifarious activities of Croscombe, and the level of involvement of its people are impressive. I too wish to play a greater part in village life, and believe that a role on the Parish Council would greatly increase my contribution of personal support to the village and its people.
