151<sup>(25)</sup> Working Group Updates

a) Crosccombe Flood Group (CFG)

- i) Cllr P Hodge's update report was noted.
- ii) Cllr P Hodge reported on his draft responses to Somerset Council's Section 19 Investigation of the January 2024 flood event and asked Councillors to submit any further comments.

b) Orchard Working Group (OWG)

Cllr L Tully reported on the Wassail event and had nothing further to report.

c) Play Area Group (PAWG) – no update report was received from Cllr B Gudzelak.

152<sup>(25)</sup> Cemetery Field – Stock Proof Fencing

Cllr A Hargraves reported on his discussions with local landowners about replacing their fencing along the boundaries of the South Field. The Clerk advised that the rental agreement requires the licensee to ensure that the field is kept “reasonably stock-proof during the period of the licence” and Cllr L Tully agreed to talk to the current licensee about installing electric fencing whilst his sheep are in the field.

153<sup>(25)</sup> Village Hall

Cllr A Ford had nothing to report from the recent Village Hall meeting.

154<sup>(25)</sup> Somerset Council Report

Cllr M Lovell’s report was noted and Cllr A Hargraves advised that ML had agreed to look into the status of Somerset Council’s repairs to the wall on the edge of the village, significantly damaged by the 2024 flood and for the past two years been replaced by a plastic fence.

155<sup>(25)</sup> Clerk’s Report

The Clerk’s report was noted and forms part of these minutes. Cllr A Hargraves advised that a resident had enquired as to why there was less material being published in the minutes, on the notice board and on the website – the Clerk advised that this was on her action plan. In the meantime she would produce notices for the boards advising who to contact for information from the Parish Council.
